NEWS RELEASE

Arrest made in murder of Stephen Beglane

SEMINOLE CO. (May 7, 2014) -- Today, investigators with Seminole County Sheriff's Office (SCSO) Major Crimes Unit arrested Carrington Emanuel Ivory, 25, of Orlando, for the April 18 murder of Stephen Beglane.

Beglane and his wife were inside their home on Fieldcrest Avenue in Winter Park when she awoke to a disturbance inside the residence. Arriving deputies found Stephen Beglane, 44, injured inside the home. He was transported to Orlando Regional Medical Center where he later succumbed to his injuries.

A warrant was issued for Carrington Ivory's arrest after forensic evidence collected during the investigation placed him at the scene of the homicide. Ivory was booked into the John E. Polk Correctional Facility this afternoon around 12:45 p.m. He is charged with murder, home invasion robbery, robbery, and burglary of a dwelling with assault and battery, and is being held without bond. Ivory will attend first appearance tomorrow, May 8 at 1:30 p.m. at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility.
