

George Zimmerman released from SCSO Correctional Facility - 04/23/2012

SEMINOLE CO. (April 23, 2012) - George Zimmerman was released this morning from the John E. Polk Correctional Facility (JEPCF) at the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. Zimmerman posted bond and was fitted with an electronic monitoring device prior to release. He departed the facility at approximately 12 a.m.

Zimmerman's GPS device will be monitored by the SCSO and Seminole County Probation. Monitoring is "real-time" and enables immediate identification of an offender's whereabouts at any given time anywhere in the U.S. The SCSO will not be releasing specifics about Zimmerman's monitoring device or monitoring conditions. Additional background information about GPS monitoring can be found at: <http://www.seminolecountyfl.gov/dps/probation/GPSservices.aspx>

No additional information regarding Zimmerman's release is available at this time.
