Inmate Dies after Extended Illness

Seminole Co. Fla. (Dec. 17, 2018) – 75-year-old Elue Watson, who was facing first-degree murder charges, has died at a local hospital after an extended illness.

Watson died Saturday, December 15 at 4:36 p.m. He had been under medical care at a local hospital since December 2, for a pre-existing medical condition. Family members have been notified of his death.

Watson was booked in to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility in August on first-degree-murder charges. For more details on his case we would ask you to contact the Sanford Police Department.

Watson's booking sheet and mugshot are attached.
