I. PURPOSE:

In that the personal appearance of employees must reflect the high professional standards of the Sheriff's Office, this directive is established to provide employees with accepted requirements of dress and grooming. This policy not only recognizes the benefits of maintaining an overall professional appearance and having standards it also recognizes the potential safety hazards to persons in uniform that do not exist equally to persons not in uniformed assignments. This policy seeks to recognize the current and evolving appearance trends in society as well as balance the interests of the Sheriff's Office with the expressive desires of its members within reasonable bounds.

II. SCOPE:

- A. The Director of Human Resources is responsible for evaluating whether a job applicant's tattoos(s) or body ornamentation would be prohibited by this policy.
- B. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring the high standards and professionalism of the Sheriff's Office are adhered to while utilizing good judgment regarding the spirit of this directive.
- C. Employees are encouraged to consult with the Director of Human Resources and review this policy prior to obtaining any additional tattoos or body ornamentation.
- D. Any employee who obtains any tattoo or body ornamentation subsequent to this effective date of this policy which is of a prohibited nature may be subject to discipline up to and including termination.
- E. Any individual who believes that any provision which applies to them cannot be adhered to due to a medical condition, religious belief, gender identity or other such reason, must schedule an appointment with the Director of Human Resources for evaluation and resolution on a case-by-case basis.

- F. Employees are cautioned that tattoos are a means by which people can be identified and may pose a safety concern and disqualifying consideration for those seeking assignment in an undercover duty assignment.

III. DEFINITIONS:

- A. Body Ornamentation:
Includes, but is not limited to, intentional body mutilation, piercing, branding, or intentional scarring or shaping of the skin. Examples of body ornamentation include but are not limited to brands, intentional body/tongue piercing, split or forked tongue, foreign objects inserted under the skin to create a design or pattern or gauges in the ear in excess of ¼ inch, the use of gold, platinum or other ornamental veneers or caps for purposes of dental ornamentation, jewels, initials, or other non-medically necessary adornments on the teeth, mutilation and dental ornamentation. This definition does not include the normal piercing of the earlobe for earrings as authorized in this policy. This does not include body ornamentation needed as a result of any needed medical procedure.
- B. Business Casual Dress:
A level of dress intended to reflect a professional appearance without the wearing of a uniform or formal clothing.
