News Advisory

Join the SCSO for a live Facebook chat on identity theft and tax fraud

Seminole Co. Fla. - (02/17/15) - The Seminole Financial Crimes Task Force (SFCTF) will hold a Facebook chat on Wednesday, Feb. 18 at 6 p.m. The chat is designed to answer questions about identity theft and tax fraud and provide prevention recourses to help you avoid becoming a victim.

The live, one hour session will be hosted on the SCSO's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/seminolesheriff. Any member of the public can view and participate in the chat.

The SFCTF is a multi-agency task force that investigates complex cases including Internet fraud, computer crimes, counterfeit check groups, identity theft, and other advanced schemes to defraud. The SFCTF is comprised of a sergeant and investigators from the Sheriff's Office, Sanford Police Department, Altamonte Springs Police Department, Casselberry Police Department, Lake Mary Police Department and a U.S. Postal Inspector.
